

Radio One-Sheet: The Twilight Burners - Midnight Thunder

Artist Name: The Twilight Burners

Album Title: Midnight Thunder

Release Date: 26 September 2025

Location: Pretoria, South Africa

Genre: Classic 1970s Blues-Rock / Boogie Rock / Retro Roadhouse Revival

For Radio Play

Featured Track

- “Backseat Boogie” -(3:39)-

A wild, playful 70s-style blues-rock romp — all driving guitars, rumbling bass, and pure backseat fun. Think ZZ Top meets Foghat with a cheeky grin and a bottle of midnight whiskey.

About the Album

Unearthed from the vault and roaring back to life, Midnight Thunder captures the raw pulse of the 1970s underground rock scene — loud guitars, leather jackets, and all-night highways. The Twilight Burners deliver sixteen tracks of pure vintage swagger, from high-octane boogie anthems to smoky barroom blues. Every riff tells a story of freedom, fire, and the open road.

What You’ll Hear:

- Gritty electric guitar riffs, soulful solos, and swampy basslines
- Raspy male vocals with a lived-in, vintage tone
- Atmospheric keys and organs, steady rock drums, and occasional brush work
- A fusion of blues, classic rock, southern rock, and narrative balladry
- Sounds inspired by Golden Earring, ZZ Top, Steppenwolf, and blues legends

This is music for:

- Long-haul night drives with nothing but your thoughts
- Lonely motels and roadside diners
- Old loves you can’t forget and highways you can’t quit

The Twilight Burners - Midnight Thunder - 70's lost tapes is more than a record — it’s a late-night transmission from the past, a ghost in the wires, and a ride you won’t forget.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Boogie Till the Break of Never – High-energy crowd favourite with a classic boogie shuffle groove.
- Ghost in the Wire – A dark, mysterious road anthem inspired by Radar Love and the supernatural.
- Diesel and Denim – Crunchy highway rock with a swaggering groove and freedom-fuelled lyrics.

- Moonlight Motel – Slow-burning blues ballad drenched in neon, heartbreak, and smoky guitars.
- Roll On Easy – A soulful, laid-back closer with that unmistakable 70s analog warmth.

Contact: Piet Smith

Email: smithpiet@gmail.com

Phone: +27 78 213 3640

Streaming Link: 26 September 2025 on all platforms